

Victory Comes From The One Who Sits On The Throne

The Lord has established His throne in heaven,
And His kingdom rules over all. Psalm 103:19

Seeing God in Everything

As Americans, we are blessed to live in a country with the freedom and right to vote. However, voting is not just a right but a responsibility that empowers us to shape the future of our nation. Understandably, a gamut of important issues is on people's minds as we prepare to vote in this year's presidential election.

With only a few days to go, our country is experiencing a heated division regarding the election. There is increased anxiety and uncertainty about the country's future, and the tightness of the race is making it even more intense.

As Christians, we must remember that our focus should be on God, who sits on the Throne, and not the one who will sit in the Oval Office. As we cast our votes, remember that our faith is in God's everlasting power, divine authority, and infinite wisdom. His continuous faithfulness should inspire us and give us hope for the future.

Throughout the history of the world's authority figures, such as biblical judges, kings, queens, and presidents, albeit good or bad, it is and always will be God's unwavering care for His children that assures us that He will provide for our every need. He is our source, deliverer, guide, and protector. Let this knowledge of God assure us that we are and will be victorious, for our victory comes from God's heavenly Throne. We can have confidence that our future is in His hands.

Dear Father, thank You for letting us know the result...we win!

For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him. Colossians 1:16
