

What If

I cling to You; Your strong right hand holds me securely. Psalms 63:8 NLT

Seeing God in Everything

I was watching television recently, and a commercial caught my attention. It featured an insurance company representative explaining insurance policies to a business owner. As the representative detailed the coverage, the client imagined various tragedies and unforeseen circumstances, repeatedly asking, "What if?" Each time, the representative confidently replied, "Covered." As the client continued envisioning different scenarios, the representative assured him that the policy was customized to alleviate his what-if concerns.

This commercial struck a chord with me, as I, too, am grappling with my own what-if scenarios. With retirement on the horizon this December, I find myself pondering the uncertainties of the future. What if my financial plan is not adequate? What if there are changes to Medicare or Social Security that could affect me? In response to each what-if question, I sensed God's reassuring voice declaring, "Covered." Instead of an insurance policy, God pointed me to my assurance policy—the Bible—customized to quiet my fears.

Sometimes, even as Christians, we dwell on the what-if scenarios in life, contemplating unpredictable and hypothetical questions about our future. God wants to reassure us that He controls the entire timeline of our lives. He has been faithful to us in the past, and more importantly, He is actively involved in our lives today, supporting us every step of the way. We can trust that God is already involved in our future, having gone ahead to equip us with everything we need to face any what-if challenges.

As we review our personalized assurance policies, let us rejoice and feel at peace, knowing we are fully covered by our loving Father's protection, provisions, and guidance throughout our lives. What if we consulted God's word daily? We would find hope, security, and experience God's unwavering faithfulness.

Dear Father, we thank You that we can cling to Your hand, knowing we can trust You with our concerns about the future. Thank You for our eternal policy.
